

School Profile

Riverview Charter School Port Royal, South Carolina

Riverview Charter School believes the best way to construct knowledge is through experiences. Students are encouraged to observe and explore their environment in a community that nurtures and respects each individual child. The well-established K-8 school is in coastal Beaufort County, South Carolina, on the Atlantic and between Charleston, SC and Savannah, GA.

Through innovative instruction, RCS seeks to connect experiential education with the art of teaching to create learning opportunities that nurture the whole child and prepare each student for a global society.

It is Riverview's mission to create a small, diverse learning community that actively engages students in meaningful and innovative learning experiences. Emphasizing "learning by doing," family and community involvement, and engaged citizenship, Riverview is committed to nurturing the whole child and preparing each student for a global society.

Our Core Values guide the policies, practices, and development of our school. They are the heart of our social and emotional learning approach:

- ✓ Optimism: Seeing the opportunity in every difficulty
- ✓ Gratitude: Appreciating and acknowledging the good people, places and things in our lives
- ✓ Empathy: Placing yourself in someone else's shoes and imagining how they feel
- ✓ Integrity: Doing the right thing, even when no one is watching
- ✓ Stewardship: Taking care of a person, place or thing
- ✓ Cooperation: Working together as a team to achieve the same goal
- ✓ Mindfulness: Being aware of our thoughts, feelings, bodies and surroundings so we can make thoughtful choices
- ✓ Perseverance: Never, never, never giving up.

Academic success at Riverview Charter School is proven through data: RCS rated "Excellent" for both elementary and middle school academic achievement by the South Carolina report cards.
